Parish News:

Thank you to the Annis Family for the beautiful primroses last Sunday in memory of Kati Annis's mother, Marian Saval Ferrigan.

Thank you this morning to the Gardner Family for furnishing the Altar with flowers.

Thanks also to the James Family for cleaning the Church this week.

Thank you to Lynette Cram and Rachel Cram for serving a meal to the homeless on Jan. 19th at Friendship House! They got to use the wonderful new kitchen!

Thanks to all who donated to St. Martin dePorres clothing collection and to those who helped gather, pack and deliver the clothing on January 22nd! We delivered a full trailer food to the shelter in Seattle. Thanks to everyone for your wonderful generosity. Deacon Phil.

Catholic CD's to borrow are on display in the Fellowship Hall. Those of you that have borrowed some, please return them for others to use. These C.D.'s are a great way to deepen your understanding of your Catholic faith and walk on His path towards home.

Skiing! Anyone who wants to ski/snowboard at Mount Baker with other Sacred Heart members, we will be going up on Monday, March 3rd. Let's get some carpooling! Questions: Maggie Schacht 360-421-7282.

Upcoming Liturgical Training sessions for our Parish.

We will be having training for new Cross Bearers today in the Church after Mass. (Contact Tracy Hancock at 360-466-3898.)

If you are interested in being a Eucharistic Minister for the Mass, training will be on Feb. 9th after Mass in the Church, contact Reesa Compton at 360-466-9937.

Training for new lectors will be held after Mass in the front of the Church on Sunday Feb. 16th. (Teens who have been confirmed are encouraged to be lectors and Eucharistic Ministers.) Contact: Deacon Phil Myer 360-299-8050.

Happy Birthday!
