3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him.”  MATTHEW 4:22

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. Everything from our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.

Dear Friends,

St. Jerome, the great biblical scholar and translator of the Latin Vulgate who died 1600 years ago famously said: “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ” (ignoratio Scripturarum ignoratio Christi). Pope Francis, on St. Jerome’s feast day this past September 30th promulgated his Apostolic Letter (Aperuit Illis) instituting today and every Sunday following the Baptism of the Lord as “Sunday of the Word of God.”

Today we are invited with all Catholics around the world to remember and celebrate the great gift of the Holy Scriptures and its importance in our faith and lives. Below I share with you a wonderful excerpt—paragraph 8—from the Holy Father’s Apostolic Letter.

Blessed Sunday of the Word of God,

Fr. Tom

From Pope Francis’ September 30, 2019 Motu Propio:

8. The journey that the Risen Lord makes with the disciples of Emmaus ended with a meal. The mysterious wayfarer accepts their insistent request: “Stay with us, for it is almost evening and the day is now far spent” (Lk 24:29).

They sit down at table, and Jesus takes the bread, blesses it, breaks it and offers it to them. At that moment, their eyes are opened, and they recognize him (cf. v. 31).

This scene clearly demonstrates the unbreakable bond between sacred Scripture and the Eucharist. As the Second Vatican Council teaches, “the Church has always venerated the divine Scriptures as she has venerated the Lord’s body, in that she never ceases, above all in the sacred liturgy, to partake of the bread of life and to offer it to the faithful from the one table of the word of God and the body of Christ” (Dei Verbum, 21).

Regular reading of sacred Scripture and the celebration of the Eucharist make it possible for us to see ourselves as part of one another. As Christians, we are a single people, making our pilgrim way through history, sustained by the Lord, present in our midst, who speaks to us and nourishes us. A day devoted to the Bible should not be seen as a yearly event but rather a year-long event, for we urgently need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures and of the risen Lord, who continues to speak his word and to break bread in the community of believers. For this reason, we need to develop a closer relationship with sacred Scripture; otherwise, our hearts will remain cold and our eyes shut, struck as we are by so many forms of blindness.

Sacred Scripture and the sacraments are thus inseparable. When the sacraments are introduced and illumined by God’s word, they become ever more clearly the goal of a process whereby Christ opens our minds and hearts to acknowledge his saving work. We should always keep in mind the teaching found in the Book of Revelation: the Lord is standing at the door and knocking. If anyone should hear his voice and open for him, he will come in and eat with them (cf. 3:20). Christ Jesus is knocking at our door in the words of sacred Scripture. If we hear his voice and open the doors of our minds and hearts, then he will enter our lives and remain ever with us.

Please remember the Church and School in your will.

3er domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“Los llamó e inmediatamente dejaron su bote y a su padre y lo siguieron”. MATEO 4:22

Así como Jesús llamó a los primeros apóstoles, también nos llama a cada uno de nosotros a seguirlo. No todos están llamados a dejar atrás su negocio o familia, pero se espera que pongamos a Dios primero en todo. Todo, desde nuestro tiempo en la oración diaria, nuestro talento para participar en nuestros ministerios parroquiales y nuestro tesoro para apoyar las necesidades financieras de nuestra misión parroquial.

Queridos amigos,

San Jerónimo, el gran erudito bíblico y traductor de la Vulgata latina que murió hace 1600 años, dijo: "La ignorancia de las Escrituras es ignorancia de Cristo" (ignoratio Scripturarum ignoratio Christi). El Papa Francisco, en la fiesta de San Jerónimo el pasado 30 de septiembre, promulgó su Carta Apostólica (Aperuit Illis) instituyendo hoy y todos los domingos después del Bautismo del Señor como "Domingo de la Palabra de Dios".

Hoy estamos invitados con todos los católicos de todo el mundo a recordar y celebrar el gran don de las Sagradas Escrituras y su importancia en nuestra fe y nuestras vidas. A continuación les comparto un extracto maravilloso, el párrafo 8, de la Carta Apostólica del Santo Padre.

Bendito Domingo de la Palabra de Dios,
Padre Tom

Del Motu Propio del 30 de septiembre de 2019 del Papa Francisco:

8. El “viaje” del Resucitado con los discípulos de Emaús concluye con la cena. El misterioso Viandante acepta la insistente petición que le dirigen aquellos dos: «Quédate con nosotros, porque atardece y el día va de caída» (Lc 24,29). Se sientan a la mesa, Jesús toma el pan, pronuncia la bendición, lo parte y se lo ofrece a ellos. En ese momento sus ojos se abren y lo reconocen (cf. v. 31).

Esta escena nos hace comprender el inseparable vínculo entre la Sagrada Escritura y la Eucaristía. El Concilio Vaticano II nos enseña: «la Iglesia ha venerado siempre la Sagrada Escritura, como lo ha hecho con el Cuerpo de Cristo, pues, sobre todo en la sagrada liturgia, nunca ha cesado de tomar y repartir a sus fieles el pan de vida que ofrece la mesa de la Palabra de Dios y del Cuerpo de Cristo» (Const. dogm. Dei Verbum, 21).

El contacto frecuente con la Sagrada Escritura y la celebración de la Eucaristía hace posible el reconocimiento entre las personas que se pertenecen. Como cristianos somos un solo pueblo que camina en la historia, fortalecido por la presencia del Señor en medio de nosotros que nos habla y nos nutre. El día dedicado a la Biblia no ha de ser “una vez al año”, sino una vez para todo el año, porque nos urge la necesidad de tener familiaridad e intimidad con la Sagrada Escritura y con el Resucitado, que no cesa de partir la Palabra y el Pan en la comunidad de los creyentes. Para esto necesitamos entablar un constante trato de familiaridad con la Sagrada Escritura, si no el corazón queda frío y los ojos permanecen cerrados, afectados como estamos por innumerables formas de ceguera.

La Sagrada Escritura y los Sacramentos no se pueden separar. Cuando los Sacramentos son introducidos e iluminados por la Palabra, se manifiestan más claramente como la meta de un camino en el que Cristo mismo abre la mente y el corazón al reconocimiento de su acción salvadora. Es necesario, en este contexto, no olvidar la enseñanza del libro del Apocalipsis, cuando dice que el Señor está a la puerta y llama. Si alguno escucha su voz y le abre, Él entra para cenar juntos (cf. 3,20). Jesucristo llama a nuestra puerta a través de la Sagrada Escritura; si escuchamos y abrimos la puerta de la mente y del corazón, entonces entra en nuestra vida y se queda con nosotros.

"Un joven sin alegría y sin esperanza no es un joven auténtico, sino un hombre envejecido antes de tiempo." ( Decía San Juan Pablo II, )

Nosotros queremos jóvenes alegres y llenos de fe. Esperanza y amor, por eso te decimos a ti Joven, que Jesús te está llamando! y te invita a unirte a nuestro grupo de jóvenes Emmanuel. Si tienes entre 14-19 años de edad, ven y convive con jóvenes de tu edad y conozcan juntos su Fe, juntos de la mano de Dios, se reúnen todos los miércoles de 6:30pm a 7:30 pm en el centro parroquial de la iglesia Inmaculada Concepción. ¡¡NO FALTES, TE ESPERAMOS!!

Por favor, recuerde a la Iglesia y a la Escuela en su testamento.

NORTHWEST CATHOLIC Collection (January 25 & 26, 2020)

The NORTHWEST CATHOLIC Collection will be taken up this week at all Masses. Through NORTHWEST CATHOLIC magazine, NWCatholic.org and social media, the Church is able to enter every home with a message of hope that the world so desperately needs. For this reason, NORTHWEST CATHOLIC is sent free of charge to every registered Catholic household in Western Washington. Your donation is a great way to share the gift of faith with others. Thank you for your past support of this annual collection.

“Anti-scam”

Numerous parishioners throughout the valley have been receiving spam emails and texts from a fictitious Fr. Tom. Please be aware that while these texts and emails seem valid, they are a scam. Our priests would never ask for gift cards, iTunes cards or any amount of money per an email or text. The best suggestion from the police department is not to answer any text or phone call unless you know the caller. You can also block spam callers on your phone. If it comes as an email, move it to your junk/spam folder.

If someone does report that they have given money to one of these, they can file a police report. There is not much the police can do at that point, but it will be recorded.

Flu Season and Mass in the Skagit Valley

This is the peak of flu season and it is important that we do everything we can to minimize the risk for our brothers and sisters with compromised or weak immune systems. If you are suffering from the flu or a serious cold, please stay home and get better; the Church recognizes sickness as a valid reason to miss Mass. Please minimize skin to skin contact, avoiding shaking hands at the Sign of Peace and holding hands during the Our Father. Finally, if there is any likelihood of infection, please refrain from receiving the Precious Blood for the sake of all who will share that cup; the doctrine of concomitance assures us that when we receive Christ under either species, in this case his Most Holy Body, we have received the whole Christ: body, blood, soul, and divinity.

Fr. Tom

REPORT FROM THE NORTHERN DEANERY

Priests from the Northern Deanery (Whatcom, Skagit, San Juan and Island Counties) met with Archbishop Etienne last week to share stories and discuss pastoral planning for our parishes in the northern part of the Archdiocese of Seattle. The archbishop intends to gather parishioners also from throughout the archdiocese to continue the dialogue and plan for the future of our church in Western Washington. Priests and parish staff and volunteers meet regularly to discuss issues of importance for the church here in the Northern Deanery. Father Paul Magnano is the dean: Fathers Jeff Moore, Tom McMichael and Mel Strazicich are subdeans, working with their pastoral assistants: Karen Zuther (Whatcom), Shari Mentel (Skagit), and Ruth Miller (Islands). You will hear more from the dean from time-to-time as we move together as a church into the future.

Hope and Healing After Abortion

“He reveals deep and hidden things and knows what is in the darkness, for the light dwells with him.” - Daniel 2:22

Have you been hiding your shame and regret in a deep and dark place within, hoping no one would ever know? God knows. He wants to help you be free of that burden and discover merciful forgiveness.

Temporada de gripe en relación con la Santa Misa en el valle de Skagit

Esta es la temporada de gripe y es importante que hagamos todo lo posible para minimizar el riesgo para nuestros hermanos y hermanas con sistemas inmunos comprometidos o débiles. Si padece gripe o un resfriado grave, quédese en casa a recuperarse; la Iglesia reconoce la enfermedad como una razón válida para faltar a la misa. Por favor, minímice el contacto de piel a piel, evitando darle la mano al Signo de la Paz y tomarse de la mano durante el Padre Nuestro. Finalmente, si existe alguna probabilidad de infección, por favor absténgase de recibir la Preciosa Sangre por el bien de todos los que compartirán esa copa; La doctrina de la concomitancia nos asegura que cuando recibimos a Cristo bajo cualquiera de las especies, en este caso su Santísimo Cuerpo, hemos recibido a todo el Cristo: cuerpo, sangre, alma y divinidad. Sunday January 29th, 2020 Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

This Sunday’s Gospel invites us to remember that our personal vocation is founded on God’s original and absolutely free choice. His invitation towards us, therefore, is an invitation to make a final decision to let Him conquer or re-conquer us to mark a turning point in our lives. Let us ask the Lord, for us and the whole Church, for the gift of a true conversion of our hearts enabling us to receive Christ as the only Light to follow. Christ is the only one that really dispels the darkness within and around us.

Domingo 29 de enero de 2020 Tercer domingo del tiempo ordinario, año A

El Evangelio de este domingo nos invita a recordar que nuestra vocación personal se basa en la elección original y absolutamente libre de Dios. Su invitación hacia nosotros por lo tanto, es una invitación a tomar una decisión final para dejar que Él nos conquiste o vuelva a conquistarnos para marcar un punto de inflexión en nuestras vidas. Pidamos al Señor, por nosotros y por toda la Iglesia, el don de una verdadera conversión de nuestros corazones que nos permita recibir a Cristo como la única Luz a seguir. Cristo es el único que realmente disipa la oscuridad dentro y alrededor de nosotros.

Sanctuary Candle: Remember your loved one by having the Sanctuary Candle burn in their memory. Stop by the office to schedule a date. A donation of $10.00 is appreciated.

Recuerde a su ser querido haciendo que la vela del santuario se queme en su memoria. Pase por la oficina para seleccionar una semana. Se agradece una donación de $10.00.

Preparation for Ash Wednesday

If you have any palms from last year please bring them to the Church so that we can burn them for our Ash Wednesday services.

Si tiene palmas del año pasado, tráigalas a la Iglesia para que podamos quemarlas para nuestros servicios del Miércoles de Ceniza.

Funeral Receptions
We are looking for parishioners that can help host funeral receptions at Sacred Heart. We have funeral receptions in the hall thought out the year (usually under eight receptions a year). We have a group that has been dedicated to help with these for years. We want to thank all who have dedicated their time to worked at these receptions especially Bertha Fohn! Right now we need a couple more people to help set up the tables, make coffee, set out the food, and clean up afterwards. Please contact Lori Hansen at lori@skagitcatholic.org if you are interested in helping.

Happy Birthday!

CHANGE THE GAME - FEBRUARY 2nd
Souper Bowl of Caring
“Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us be mindful of those without a bowl of soup to eat”

Join our youth in collecting cans of soup for the “Souper Bowl” on February 2nd. There will be two places in the hall to put your donations; you pick your favorite team and we will see which team collects the most food for the win! Food collected will be donated to the Tri-Parish Food Bank. Thank you, Mrs. Lemrick’s and Mrs. Zaharris Middle School Youth Group.
